TEACHING PLAN*Introduction

ATTENTION: Good afternoon and welcome to your last drill class in this achievement.

MOTIVATION: None (These cadets are self-motivated)

OVERVIEW: During this period Cadet _____ will assign you to parade/review staff positions, brief you on the parade field activity and then you will proceed to the field and practice to perfection what you already know. Most of you will rotate through various positions giving you a chance to become proficient in more than one position.

TRANSITION: Cadet _____, take charge.

Body

Instructor's Note: Assign one cadet to be the commander of troops and have that cadet set up the staffing for a parade/review. The commander of troops will brief all other cadets on what will happen on the parade field. Once this has been accomplished, the cadets will move to the parade field for practice. Staffing and practice is based on the availability of cadets in this achievement. Rotate cadets through various positions so that they master all positions assigned.

The instructor will observe all activity and critique at the end of the drill session. Also, the instructor will act as the reviewing officer for the inspection procedure and pass-in-review, when practiced by the cadets.
